CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Survey of current issues relating to ethical practice and legal responsibilities in family therapy. Addresses issues such as confidentiality, informed consent, dual relationships, and therapist liability. Includes models for ethical decision making, working with the legal system, and relevant aspects of family law.

Prerequisites: None

Credits: 2 semester units (30 contact hours)

MCFT STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

This course promotes the following student learning outcomes:

SLO 1.1: Students recognize the impact of power on individuals, families, and communities. SLO 4.1: Students apply ethical decision-making processes to clinical dilemmas. SLO 4.2: Students provide competent service according to the AAMFT code of ethics and core competencies.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the end of this course, students are expected to:

1. Understand the ethical and legal considerations specifically related to the practice of family therapy (e.g., confidentiality & release of records in relational therapy). Know and follow the AAMFT Code of Ethics, standards of practice, and state laws and regulations for the practice of MCFT.

- 2. Understand the implications of professional issues unique to the practice of family therapy, including contemporary debates in the field (e.g., diagnosis and relational therapies, evidence-based & common factors movements).
- 3. Understand philosophies and best practices for ethical decision-making. Learn to apply a model of ethical decision making appropriate for clinical work
- 4. Become familiar with family law, family regulating agencies, and actions required of family therapists, (e.g., reporting child abuse & neglect, going to court, responding to subpoenas, working with child protection agencies).
- 5. Develop a beginning understanding of the behavioral health care delivery system, its impact on the services provided, the barriers and disparities in the system, and how institutional barriers prevent members of varying cultural and class groups from using/benefiting from mental health services.

ASSIGNMENTS AND COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Participation in all classes (10 points)

~Attending all classes, being on time, & attentive to discussions/demonstrations ~Contributing your thoughts on the class material & discussions in a respectful manner, being mindful not to dominate the discussions or be absent from them

~Coming to class prepared (having read/done the assignments for the day)

2. Professional Disclosure Statement (20 points)

The PDS is a written document that LPCs, LMFTs, and registered associates must provide to clients in the initial session. This document contains information about the licensee/associate, their practice, and how to reach the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists (OBLPCT). The PDS guidelines can be found on the website – https://www.oregon.gov/OBLPCT/ Read the Guidelines for Professional Disclosure Statements and prepare a professional document that is presentable to clients and colleagues.

Writing and professional appearance of PDS (grammar and format)5 pointsPhilosophy/Approach that reflects your systemic and social justice training5 pointsContains all PDS required elements (found on OBLPCT website)10 points

3. Informed Consent (20 points)

The informed consent is both a written document and a process. For this assignment, you will create an informed consent document. All of the information you need to create the document will come from your codes of ethics, class readings, ppt presentation, example documents, and class discussion. Your document must contain, at minimum, the following:

your philosophy/approach to therapy, your credentials, risks/benefits of treatment, telehealth, limits to confidentiality, procedures for communication (e.g., setting/canceling appointments via phone/text/email; social media), fees/billing/non payment, late cancel/no show policy, emergencies, unique aspects of working with minors, couples, & families, insurance/diagnosis, client files/record keeping, consultation and/or supervision, and a place for signatures that attest to clients' understanding and agreement. The document must be clearly written so someone with a 5th grade education can understand it, and it demonstrates your understanding of all elements of the informed consent.

4. Case Presentation (25 points)

You will be given a family/couples therapy practice scenario that requires ethical and legal decision making. You can use all of the resources presented throughout the course (OARS, ACA code of ethics, AAMFT code of ethics, Lewis and Clark's counseling center policy and procedures). You will have one week to explore and determine how you would make decisions as a family/couples therapist and what resources and guidelines you would apply in order to make your decisions. Please be prepared to present your scenario during class. Provide a 3-4 page, double spaced paper on your scenario and includes the following:

Identification of relevant ethical concerns/dilemmas	5 points
Identification of relevant L&C CCC clinic policies/procedures	5 points
Identification of relevant Oregon state laws	5 points
Identification of applicable ethical codes (AAMFT & ACA)	5 points

Due Week 9

Due Week 5

Due Week 4

5. Open Book Exam (25 points)

The final exam will be formatted similarly to the MFT National Exam. It will include true/false and multiple choice questions covering the entire scope of the course. You may use books, articles, notes and websites during the exam. Each of 25 questions will be worth 1 point. 25 points

EVALUATION AND GRADING

Students MUST complete all assignments in order to pass the course. Points will be awarded as follows:

Attendance/Participation	10pts
Professional Disclosure Statement	20pts
Informed Consent Document	20pts
Case Presentation	25pts
In Class Exam	25pts
TOTAL	100pts

FINAL GRADING

A = 93-100	B = 83-87	C = 73-77
A-=90-92	B-= 80-82	C-=70-72
B+=88-89	C+ = 78-79

NOTE: All assignments must be uploaded on Moodle prior to the beginning of class on the day they are due. 10% of the possible grade will be deducted for each day an assignment is late.

According to Graduate School policy, grades lower than B- may not apply to graduation. Students earning a C+ or lower will need to repeat the course.

TEACHING METHODS

A variety of teaching methods will be used during this course in order to achieve the above objectives. Among those methods will be assigned readings, class discussions, role play/experiential activities, presentations, and lectures.

READINGS:

Readings are to be completed prior to each day of class as indicated in the schedule below. Students are expected to be prepared to discuss the ideas and concepts discussed in the readings. You are responsible for all of the assigned readings, whether or not they are discussed in class.

Due Week 10

CPSY DEPARTMENT ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is expected and required. Any missed class time will be made up by completing extra assignments designed by the instructor. Missing more than ten percent of class time may result in failure to complete the class. This would be 4.5 hours of a 45 hour class (3 credits), 3.0 hours for a 30 hour class (2 credits) or 1.5 hours for a 15 hour class (1 credit.) In case of extreme hardship and also at the discretion of the instructor, a grade of incomplete may be given for an assignment or the entire course. In such cases, the work to be submitted in order to remove the incomplete must be documented appropriately and stated deadlines met. Students are expected to be on time to class and tardiness may be seen as an absence that requires make-up work.

DISABILITY SERVICES STATEMENT

If you have a disability that may impact your academic performance, you may request accommodations by submitting documentation to the Student Support Services Office in the Albany Quadrangle (503-768-7192). After you have submitted documentation and filled out paperwork there for the current semester requesting accommodations, staff in that office will notify me of the accommodations for which you are eligible.

L&C ESSENTIAL GRADUATE SCHOOL POLICIES

This course adheres to the general policies outlined in the catalog and student handbook of the Lewis & Clark Graduate School of Education and Counseling. This includes full adherence to the following policies:

Nondiscrimination: https://graduate.lclark.edu/student_life/handbook/ Standards for professional student conduct and academic integrity: https://docs.lclark.edu/graduate/policyprocedures/academic/ Sexual misconduct: https://www.lclark.edu/about/title_ix_compliance/

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Each student should decide for them/him/herself what information to disclose. Students are advised to be prudent when making self-disclosures. The program cannot guarantee confidentiality of student disclosures given the group environment, although personal comments should be considered private and confidential – and remain only in the classroom – unless an exception to confidentiality applies.

CELL PHONES

Cell phones must be silenced and text messaging is not allowed during class time. If there is an emergency you may exit the class to use your cell.
